The Love of God

During this time of year, you will be unable to go anywhere and not see the symbols of love. The world's view of love is hearts, cupids, cards and boxes of candy. God's view of love is much different. He showed His love by the ultimate sacrifice, His Son. This is a time we can reflect on, although never truly understand, that love. To share this love with others should be our ultimate desire. The love of God is so much greater than the pinks, reds and whites of merchandise. The love of God is so much deeper than the sweetness of chocolates and conversation hearts. Help us to be ever grateful for that ultimate show of love.

"Faithful Servants"

Romans 5:5

"And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us."

Mission Nugget

*Law and terrors do but harden,
All the while they work alone;
But a sense of blood-bought pardon
Will dissolve a heart of stone.*
