Spring Cleaning!

As we walk through this life, we accumulate many things. It may be stuff that we have packed away and will never use. It may be emotional hurts that we have pressed back and left untouched by God. It may be physical ailments that have drug us down and discouraged us in our witness for Him. Well, now is the time for Spring Cleaning. All those things we have packed under our spiritual beds and in our spiritual attics must go. Help us to dig down deep for what God has in store. It may require that we clear our lives of the clutter, but it will be a great blessing as we submit to His cleansing. As we clean those houses this Spring, let it remind us to lay aside the things that may hinder our work for Him. Then we can move forward refreshed and spotless to reach out to the lost around us

Mission Nugget

*Ev'ry day passing by, You are sowing a seed,
Fruits of life or of death will bear.
When you reap what you sow,
To that land you may go,
To that bright happy home over there.*
